COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

REFLECTIONS ON INDUCTION

The Speaker (Hon. Okode): Hon. Members, welcome back to this honourable House and I thank you for taking time to go through the induction process. I am hoping that the induction which we went through last week will sharpen your skills and widen your knowledge in transacting your business in the Assembly to help the electorate and the County at large.

I am also aware, as has been requested, that Committees will engage in planning and also review of previous Committee reports to inform their next move of action. I therefore hope that the time we will have between now and our next plenary, the Committees will have been adequately informed and prepared to transact properly. Next order!
