STATEMENT

CONSTRUCTION OF APODO PIT LATRINE IN LUHANO TRADING CENTER

Hon. Odongo: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Sir, I rise to seek a Statement from the Chairperson Sectorial Committee on Finance, Trade, Industry, Labour and Cooperatives regarding the construction of Apodo pit latrine in Luhano Trading Center in West Ugenya Ward which is in my Ward.

In the Statement the Chairperson should respond to the following concerns: First, why the contractors M/s Luhano Focused Youth Group have not been paid the contractual sum of Kshs. 500,000 despite the fact that they have completed the project. Secondly, why the County Government is not collecting revenue from the said trading center and lastly, why the revenue office has remained closed in the said trading center

As you have heard from what I have read just now there is a market known as Luhano in my Ward that the people collecting revenue have not been collecting revenue from and this shows me clearly that the County Government of Siaya is not concerned with my people.

I wonder why as per what I have read this youth group that did this contract have not been paid to date and I would like to know why as you are aware we have been singing that we want Reports. I am aware that this would be one of the ways of empowering youth I would like response from the mentioned departments

The Temporary Speaker (Hon. Opanga): The Statement stands committed to the Committee on Finance, Trade, Industry, Labour and Cooperatives and we are expecting our response in the next two weeks.
