

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

COUNTY ASSEMBLY OF SIAYA

Customer Service Delivery Charter

FOREWORD

The County Assembly of Siaya is one of the 47 County Assemblies in Kenya under the Devolved Government. We exist to serve the people of Siaya County in ensuring that the fruits of devolution accrue to the public. We have the legal mandate through the Kenyan Constitution and attendant legislation to enable us undertake this task.

We aim for promoting the ideals of devolution, good governance and the rule of law

There are expectations from the citizens of Siaya County and stakeholders on the services that we deliver to them. This Service Charter outlines defines our commitment as the County Assembly of Siaya to deliver premium services to our citizens, partners, donors and other stakeholders.

The general conditions under which service delivery promises will be achieved assuming operating conditions remain normal include working in partnership with all stakeholders.

Welcome to the County Assembly of Siaya

HON.SPEAKER

GEORGE O. OKODE, MBS

CHAIRMAN – COUNTY ASSEMBLY SERVICE BOARD

PREFACE

This charter has been all set to avert debilitating service delivery initiatives of the County Assembly of Siaya. Moreover, the charter enhances awareness on the range of services offered by the County Assembly of Siaya and corroborates our commitment to offer satisfactory services to all and sundry.

Citizen Charters are public agreements between citizens and service providers that give a systematic approach to meeting the expectations and standards in the realm of service delivery.

The development of Service Charters in County Assemblies represents a paradigm shift in the manner in which public services are delivered, now and in future. We are happy as County Assembly of Siaya to take part in this strategic change.

This document spells out what the County Assembly of Siaya does and records the commitments of its departments to provide and enhance quality services. It is my hope and pleasure that this document is not inscrutable and that our clients will continuously give us feedback on the quality and effectiveness of our services.

MR. ERIC OGENGA

Ag. CLERK

1.0 THE PURPOSE OF THE CHARTER

This Service Charter outlines the services that we render. It aims at improving accountability between County Assembly of Siaya, a service provider and its clients as service receivers. It specifies expectations and standards of service delivery of the County Assembly's service users. This Service Delivery Charter also specifies rights, responsibilities of both parties and how clients can access the department services.

In addition, this charter is expected to empower the people of Siaya County and stakeholders, to be able to make demands on our officers at the various levels of service delivery.

The County Assembly shall ensure continuous relevance of the Customer Service Charter in consultation with its stakeholders with a view of improving the customer experience.

2.0 WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO (OUR SERVICES)

The Constitution of Kenya Article 185 provides the primary objectives and functions of the Assembly.

a) LEGISLATION

The legislative authority of the county assembly is derived from the Constitution of Kenya Article 185. It states that:

1. The legislative authority of the County is vested in, and exercised by, its County Assembly.
2. The County Assembly may make any laws that are necessary for, or incidental to, the effective performance of the functions and exercise of the powers of the county government under the Fourth Schedule.
3. The County Assembly, while respecting the principle of the separation of powers, may exercise oversight over the County Executive Committee and any other county executive organs.
4. The County Assembly may receive and approve plans and policies for—
 - a. the management and exploitation of the county's resources; and

- b. the development and management of its infrastructure and institutions

b) OVERSIGHT

The County Assembly oversight role is defined under Section 8 of the County Governments Act 2012.

(1) The county assembly shall—

- (a) Vet and approve nominees for appointment to county public offices as may be provided for in this Act or any other law;

- (b) Perform the roles set out under Article 185 of the Constitution;

- (c) Approve the budget and expenditure of the County Government in accordance with Article 207 of the Constitution, and the legislation contemplated in Article 220(2) of the Constitution, guided by Articles 201 and 203 of the Constitution;

- (d) Approve the borrowing by the County Government in accordance with Article 212 of the Constitution;

- (e) Approve county development planning; and

- (f) Perform any other role as may be set out under the Constitution or legislation.

c) REPRESENTATION

The representative function of the Assembly is characterized by;

- a. Its role as an avenue for the expression and debate of issues of local and national importance, and the translation of those debates into policies.
- b. Members of the County Assembly engaging their constituents in continuing dialogue in order to understand their views and perspectives and to rely on their knowledge on various topics and utilizing their respective offices to voice the resulting ideas.
- c. Members of the County Assembly using the formal structure of the Assembly to engage constituents in public participation and provide them with direct access to the decision-making process within the institution.

3.0 STRUCTURE AND GOVERNANCE

Membership of the County Assembly is composed of the Speaker, elected members and nominated representatives of marginalized groups including persons with disabilities and youth who work through Assembly Committees (Annex 3).

The Siaya County Assembly administration has a hierarchical structure. The Speaker of the County Assembly is at the apex of this structure. He chairs the County Assembly Service Board with the Clerk to the County Assembly being the Secretary of the Board. The Clerk works with a number of Departmental Heads who have specific mandates. This allows for division of labour (Annex 2).
